

150 Sentences for School

A Comprehensive Collection of Useful English Sentences for Students, Teachers, and Classrooms

Overview: This document contains 150 practical, well-structured sentences categorized across different school contexts (Classroom Interaction, Daily Routines, Library & Study, Social & Peer Communication, and Extracurricular Activities). It is designed to assist English language learners, young students, and educators in building everyday conversational competence within academic environments.

Category 1: Classroom Interactions & Asking Questions

Sentences used for communicating with teachers, asking for clarification, and participating in lessons.

#	Sentence
1	May I come in, please?
2	Excuse me, I have a question about this assignment.
3	Could you please repeat that explanation?
4	I didn't quite catch what you said.
5	What page are we on?
6	When is this homework due?
7	Can I work with a partner for this project?
8	Is there extra credit available for this test?
9	Could you write that word on the board, please?
10	I don't understand this math problem.
11	How do you spell this word?
12	What does this vocabulary term mean?
13	May I borrow a pencil, please?
14	I forgot my eraser at home.
15	Can I go to the restroom, please?

#	Sentence
16	May I get a drink of water?
17	I am finished with my assignment. What should I do next?
18	Should we write our answers in pen or pencil?
19	Is it okay if I use colored markers for my poster?
20	Can you check if my answer is correct?
21	I need help opening my locker.
22	My computer battery is running low; can I plug it in?
23	I cannot log into my student account.
24	Where should I submit my completed worksheet?
25	Can I turn this in tomorrow morning?
26	Thank you for helping me understand this topic.
27	Could you recommend a good book to read?
28	I enjoyed today's science experiment very much.
29	What topics will be covered on the final exam?
30	Have a wonderful afternoon, teacher!

Category 2: Daily Routines & School Administration

Sentences describing daily school schedules, attendance, announcements, and administrative tasks.

#	Sentence
31	The school bell rings at eight o'clock in the morning.
32	All students must assemble in the courtyard for the morning assembly.
33	The principal made an important announcement over the loudspeaker.
34	Attendance is taken during homeroom period every day.
35	John was marked absent because he had a doctor's appointment.
36	Please line up quietly outside the classroom door.
37	We have physical education in the gymnasium today.
38	The cafeteria serves hot meals during the lunch break.

#	Sentence
39	Students are required to wear their school uniform every day.
40	My locker combination is written in my planner.
41	The school bus arrives at the main gate at three o'clock.
42	Extracurricular club meetings take place after regular classes.
43	Report cards will be distributed at the end of the semester.
44	Parent-teacher conferences are scheduled for next Thursday.
45	The nurse's office is located near the main administration desk.
46	Please keep your student ID card visible at all times.
47	The science laboratory is equipped with microscopes and safety goggles.
48	We practiced a fire drill procedure this morning.
49	The school counselor is available to talk during lunch.
50	Lost and found items are kept in the front office.
51	Students must present a pass if they arrive late to class.
52	The school newspaper is published monthly by the journalism club.
53	Lockers must be cleaned out before the summer vacation begins.
54	The cafeteria monitor reminded everyone to clean up their tables.
55	Registration for next year's elective courses opens next week.
56	The school parking lot is restricted to staff and faculty members.
57	Morning announcements begin promptly after the national anthem.
58	Students who ride bikes must park them in the designated rack.
59	The school gates are locked securely at five o'clock in the evening.
60	School spirit week features a different dress code theme each day.

Category 3: Library, Studying & Academic Research

Sentences focused on reading, researching, borrowing books, and independent study habits.

#	Sentence
61	I need to check out three reference books from the library.

#	Sentence
62	Please maintain absolute silence in the reading room.
63	This library book is due back on Friday.
64	I found a reliable academic source for my history essay.
65	She is taking detailed notes while reading chapter four.
66	The research paper requires at least five credible citations.
67	We are studying the periodic table of elements in chemistry.
68	He highlighted the most important definitions in his textbook.
69	Let us review our flashcards before the vocabulary quiz.
70	The encyclopedia section is located on the second floor.
71	Can you help me search for articles in the digital database?
72	I need to print out my bibliography before class.
73	Group study sessions help us prepare effectively for exams.
74	She borrowed an atlas to locate European capitals.
75	The librarian helped me find the biography section.
76	Writing an outline helps structure your argumentative essay.
77	Please do not fold the pages of library books.
78	He spent two hours studying geometry in the quiet study carrel.
79	We cited our sources correctly according to MLA format.
80	The computer lab is reserved for research projects this afternoon.
81	She organized her study schedule using a color-coded calendar.
82	Reading comprehension improves with regular daily practice.
83	The history textbook covers the American Revolution in detail.
84	He summarized the main argument of the article in three sentences.
85	We used a dictionary to look up unfamiliar literary terms.
86	The online academic journal requires a student login.
87	She proofread her essay twice to eliminate grammatical errors.

#	Sentence
88	Studying abroad offers incredible cultural and educational benefits.
89	The geography project requires creating a physical relief map.
90	Good study habits lead to academic success and higher grades.

Category 4: Social & Peer Communication

Sentences used for interacting with classmates, making friends, group work, and teamwork.

#	Sentence
91	Would you like to be partners for this science project?
92	Let us divide the tasks evenly among our group members.
93	Great job on your presentation today!
94	Do you want to sit together at lunch?
95	Can I help you carry your art supplies to the studio?
96	Let us meet at the library after school to finish our report.
97	Does everyone agree with this conclusion?
98	I think we should include more charts in our slideshow.
99	Thank you for sharing your colored pencils with me.
100	Who wants to present our group findings to the class?
101	Congratulations on winning the school science fair award!
102	Let us practice our dialogue for the drama club performance.
103	Can I borrow your notes from yesterday's history lecture?
104	It was wonderful working with you on this assignment.
105	Would you like to play soccer during recess?
106	I'm sorry I interrupted you; please go ahead.
107	Let us cheer for our school basketball team this Friday.
108	Do you need any help cleaning up the art room tables?
109	Happy birthday! We brought cupcakes to share during break.
110	Let us make a study guide together for the upcoming biology test.

#	Sentence
111	That is a brilliant idea for our history project topic.
112	Can we exchange phone numbers to coordinate our group work?
113	Thank you for explaining that difficult concept to me.
114	Let us include everyone in our group discussion.
115	You did an amazing job acting in the school play.
116	Would you like to join our chess club meeting today?
117	Let us walk to the cafeteria together.
118	I appreciate your honesty and hard work on this project.
119	Good luck with your mathematics competition this weekend!
120	See you tomorrow morning at the school gates!

Category 5: Extracurricular Activities, Sports & Arts

Sentences covering sports, music, drama, clubs, and creative activities at school.

#	Sentence
121	The school orchestra is rehearsing for the winter concert.
122	She scored the winning goal during the soccer match.
123	The debate team practiced their arguments for the regional championship.
124	Art class students painted beautiful landscape canvases.
125	The track team runs laps around the stadium every afternoon.
126	Our school choir performed beautifully at the annual festival.
127	The coding club is designing a simple mobile video game.
128	He plays the acoustic guitar in the school jazz band.
129	The drama club is staging a production of Shakespeare's play.
130	Students planted vegetables in the school community garden.
131	The photography club showcased their best prints in the hallway.
132	She won first place in the annual poetry recitation contest.
133	The chess club meets every Tuesday in room twenty-four.

#	Sentence
134	We learned traditional folk dances during physical education.
135	The robotics team assembled a functional mechanical arm.
136	Students practiced yoga and mindfulness in the wellness club.
137	The school swimming pool is open for swim team practice.
138	He designed the front cover of the school yearbook.
139	The environmental club organized a campus recycling drive.
140	She practiced her solo piano piece for the music recital.
141	The basketball team practiced free throws for thirty minutes.
142	Students built model bridges out of wooden popsicle sticks.
143	The journalism club interviewed the principal for the school magazine.
144	Our cheerleading squad performed an energetic routine at the game.
145	The astronomy club set up telescopes to observe the evening stars.
146	She won the spelling bee competition after ten rounds.
147	The culinary club baked delicious chocolate chip cookies.
148	We designed theatrical costumes for the spring musical.
149	The cross-country running team competed in the regional park.
150	Participating in extracurricular activities builds confidence and teamwork.